

HOW TO CUT COST TO DELIVER GROWTH >>

Atos Consulting Cost Reduction to provide business advantage

The effects of the credit crunch are visible and we are all facing an unstable economic situation. Together with our clients we have seen results such as:

- >> Uncertainty about client demand
- >> Decreased revenues and strict conditions for credit facilities
- >> Direct pressure on costs
- >> Relative high impact of overhead costs on total costs

The questions you are now challenged with, is how to secure your continuity and how to restore your profitability (figure 1)? Are you being challenged with these questions and how are you planning your approach? We, as Atos Consulting, have defined different levels of approach on how to support you on these topics.
